Poem Ordered Printed.

On motion of Senator Neal the following was ordered printed in the Journal:

The Texas Confederate Woman's Home.

By an inmate of this Home.

Thy blessing "Lord" upon the State,
That built this caravansary
To greet the Aged Confederate
With gracious hospitality.

God bless the roof that shelters me
Where I have paused awhile to rest—
And where I sleep peacefully
As an infant on his Mother's breast.

God bless the friendly trees that spread
O'er ivied walls green canopies
Where birds sing in the boughs o'er head
Sweet mating songs and lullabies.

I have toiled for more than four
score years,

I no more question time nor fate
I have sown in joy and reaped in tears—

With folded hands I calmly wait.

There is an alcove in the Hall
Where sifted sunbeams gently fall
Upon a flag, draped on the wall,
The most beloved flag of all.

It bears a heraldic device
A cross with thirteen stars embossed
Emblem of supreme sacrifice
Made by the loved and lost.

Beneath its folds brave Southern men

Fought for the constitution well
Blockaded, starved, out-numbered fell

Such men we shall not see again!

Whene'er I pass this sacred place
I've trained my feet to softly tread
And pause for just a moments space
While I salute the gallant dead.

Mrs. Zoe L. Hunt.

Free Conference Requested.

Pollard, Parrish, Wirtz, Gainer, Westbrook.

Motion to Adjourn.

Senator Greer moved to adjourn until 10:00 o'clock tomorrow morning. The motion was lost.

Reasons for Vote.

On the Free Conference report on S. B. No. 3, the rural aid bill, I vote "aye." However there was one provision in the bill to which I strenuously object, namely, that portion that required a 50 cent tax to be levied in a district before the State would pay the high school tuition of a pupil transferring from such a district. I would much prefer that the State would pay the high school tuition of all children in this State transferring from a district in which there is no high school into a district in which there is a high school. Rather than to jeopardize this bill, I reluctantly accepted this amendment.

DeBERRY.

APPENDIX.*Petitions and Memorials.

S. S. Noddle Island,
Sabine Pass, July 4, 1929.
Senator W. R. Cousins,
Beaumont, Texas.

Dear Sir: Having read in the papers of the fine thing you have done about the Nautical School Bill, it will be a great thing for the State of Texas. You are right about having to depend on foreign born citizens to man our vessels. What we need is all American born boys on our vessels. I do not know if you know it or not, but 75 per cent of our vessels are manned by foreign born people. Some of the captains of American vessels can hardly speak English. I happen to know as I have been to sea for the past sixteen years. I am at present taking the vessels sold to the Union Ship Building Company out of Orange to Baltimore, Md., to be scrapped. Am at present sailing on the S. S. Noddle Island for Baltimore.

We need on our vessels a 100 per cent American crew, not a bunch of "squareheads," etc., who can not speak English.

I am a native of Texas, but have been sailing out of the North and Gulf for the past 16 years.

Very truly yours,
CAPT. R. S. HALL,
care Union Ship Building Co., Baltimore, Md.
